DALLAS.

A Camp of Counterfeiters Located on the Banks of the Trinity.

Pots, Dies, Tools and Large Quantities of Metal Discovered—Board of Trade Meeting—Local Notes.

THE GAZETTE BUREAU, 207 MAIN STREET,
DALLAS, TEX., Feb. 24, 1890.

For some time the authorities have been on the lookout for the source of the bogus money which has been circulating freely in this and neighboring sections, and to-day Deputy United States Marshal Huntington made up his mind that the counterfeiters had a location in this vicinity. He proceeded along the banks of the Trinity, where he suspected they might hold forth, and was gratified to run upon their camp, hidden behind shrubbery and underbrush where it would not be probable inquisitive eyes would find them. No counterfeit coin rewarded the search, but pots, dies and large quantities of metal were there. There was an excavation near at hand where the tools were hidden when not in active use. It is supposed the crooks are now in Dallas—possibly they reside here—and no time will be lost in tracing them and bringing them to justice.

The Board of Trade.

It was not a large attendance that answered the call of the president of the board of trade for a meeting of that body at the merchants' exchange this morning, and the business transacted, beyond the relating of certain signs and portents of a hoped for boom for the city, was the inaugurating of the daily meetings of the board. These meetings are conducive in the interest of citizens and merchants generally, but really there does not appear much chance for benefit except to the real estate men, who can there talk over business and arrange trades.

In Court Circles.

Judge Bower did not do any business in the county court to-day until this afternoon, when he called the civil docket and made assignments for the current term.

The injunction case of Meredith vs. the Dallas consolidated street railway company went over until Thursday in Judge Burke's court.

Judge Tucker to-day assigned the non-jury civil docket. A long list of cases was disposed of.

FOR BASE BALL FANS.

The Manager of the Dallas Team Arrives.
What He Says.

W. A. Holland, the manager of the Dallas ball team for the coming year, arrived here on Saturday night, but he has been so busily engaged gassing to the fans around town that THE GAZETTE man didn't have a chance to speak with him until to-day. He didn't have much to say, anyway. Incidentally he mentioned that the Dallas team would carry off the pennant, sure, this year, but the gentleman's opinion may be somewhat biased. He also observed that the men signed to play with Dallas are all strictly sober people; but that is becoming such a common characteristic with ball players that it is scarcely an item of news. THE GAZETTE has already published the names of the players. They will be here on March 5. Holland is a nice fellow in appearance and deportment; and if he can play ball as well as he looks he will do.

Real Estate.

If a list of the real estate transfers recorded in Dallas to-day were shoved under the nose of a Fort Worth man and yanked away suddenly, so he could only get a general glimpse of them, he would probably exclaim, "Whew!" and come to the conclusion that this entire city had been swapped off in small chunks. But his conclusion would be a premature one, for if he would inspect the list closely he would see that only a small portion of the city had been dealt in. The records show a total of thirty-two transfers, enough to cover half a column of THE GAZETTE as such matter is usually published. But the value involved in the thirty-two transfers is only $38,900.
The fact is, the city has been led off to additions over toward the east county line, and many sales made in those additions during the past fortnight, at $100 a lot or so, have been recorded to-day.
Following are the only sales of importance:

Robert E. L. Knight to W. H. Lemmon, lots 16 and 17, block 11, North Dallas improvement company's addition, $1,000.

Robert E. L. Knight to W. H. Lemmon, undivided half interest in certain lots in Knight's "Terrace" addition, $10,000.

Robert E. L. Knight to O. P. Bowser, undivided one-fourth interest in certain
lots in Knight's Terrace addition, $5,000.

Robert E. L. Knight to E. G. Knight,
lots in Knight's Terrace addition, $5,000.

W. H. Lemmon to Robert E. L. Knight, lot 12, block 12, Bowser & Lem-mon's North Park and Oak Lawn addition, $6,000.

Minor Matters.

The voting place in precinct No. 20 has been changed from Hughes' to the Oak Lawn schoolhouse.

James Montgomery, superintendent of the gas and electric light works at Sedalia, Mo., who has been the guest of Thomas A. Montgomery of this city, went to Fort Worth this morning. From there he proposes to go to San Antonio, Laredo and down into Mexico.

James Hanlon was arrested last night on a charge of assault and battery, his wife being the victim of the same, it is charged. He was released on bond.

Wilfred Brundette and Miss Sallie Scully were married last night at the Methodist church by Rev. McLaughlin.

Marriage licenses were granted to-day to S. W. Coleman and Lila Kelly, George W. Greenwood and Addie E. Talbot.

The First Convention of Slavs.

SAN ANGELO.

Immigration Flocking Into Southwest Texas.
An Immense Freight Business Done at San Angelo.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

SAN ANGELO, TEX., Feb. 23.—T. A.
Wilkinson, Esq., immigration commissioner of the Fort Worth and Rio Grande railway company, arrived here this morning with thirteen excursionists and prospectors. Among the number we met the Rev. C. A. Swanson, president of Lindsborg college, Lindsborg, Kan., and E. E. Swanson, Esq., general manager of the Swedish-American emigration association. Several of the party went on with Mr. Wilkinson to the Luverne colony, Crockett county, where the town of Emerald Grove has been recently started, and the remainder of the excusionists are enjoying the pleasure of a familiar examination of the fertile lands surrounding San Angelo and the beauties of our city, our climate and our people. Mr. Wilkinson expects to make arrangements whereby the handsome and instructive pamphlets descriptive of West Texas, printed under the auspices of the immigration department of the Fort Worth and Rio Grande railway company, will be duplicated in the Swedish language and distributed in Sweden and among the Swedish-American settlements of the Northwest. A representative Swede will accompany Mr. Wilkinson this summer with his car of West Texas products to and through the Northwest and thence east to the Atlantic seaboard. The Luverne colony is growing, and there is a steady tide of immigration into all parts of Tom Green, Crockett and Schleicher counties. San Angelo is the base of supply and trading point for all of this territory, and the freighting from San Angelo south and west nearly equals that which came from Abilene to San Angelo before the Santa Fe road built to us. The livestock freight shipments from San Angelo in the fall and spring are enormous and turn many a dollar into the coffers of the Santa Fe company. Adding to this the great amount of freight received by us to Texas products to and through the Northwest and we have a showing that should induce the Fort Worth and Rio Grande railway company to extend their road to San Angelo as speedily as possible, for over their line we would save 200 miles of travel to Fort Worth, St. Louis or Chicago, and the shorter line would get the business. If President Horley will make us a visit we can and will talk facts and figures to him.

People from all sections of the country are coming to Fort Worth and investing in real estate. Denver, Kansas City, Omaha and even Dallas is putting their money in Fort Worth dirt. These wide-awake people know that our city is destined to be a large and populous place.
We know numbers of people who have lived here years, and point out property and say, "I could have bought a certain piece of property for $500; now it is worth $5000. Why don't you get a home while prices are within your reach? You can buy very cheap of us, as we bought before the late advance."
